INCLUDED IN PRICE

Transport with a car, professional guide service, entrance fees.

The journey will take you through a mix of experiences to the south-east of Warsaw. You will visit: Kazimierz Dolny, a pearl of the Polish Renaissance, a picturesque historic town on the Vistula River – many Poles claim it to be the nicest small town in Poland. The historical city of Lublin (350 000 inhabitants), known from the stories of Isaac Bashevis Singer, with its Old Town and priceless 15th century Russian-Byzantine frescos in the Holy Trinity Chapel. Finally you will be taken to the poignant museum and memorial of one the biggest former Nazi extermination camps, Majdanek, in one of Lublin's suburbs.
