You will have an opportunity to see the Old Town with its impressive Krakow Gate dating back to the 14th century, the Town Hall, the Dominican church and monastery founded in the 13th century – and all of these representing a variety of historical architectural styles.

One of the highlights of your sightseeing tour will be the Cathedral with its Acoustic Sacristy Chamber and Treasury. One of the most important historical artefacts to be found in Lublin is the priceless set of Russo-Byzantine frescoes in the Holy Trinity Chapel, located within the fortified walls of Lublin Castle.
